

Im Rahmen des jour-fixe findet folgender Vortrag statt:

Prof. Dr. David Vanderburgh

Université catholique de Louvain

Strange Alliances Reform and Rupture under Modernity

For Bruno Latour, modernity is marked by covert but large-scale hybridization of people and things. Yet the modern rhetorics of reform and rupture seem always to work by proposing to install new discontinuities. "New" architectures (for example, the carceral and the commercial) are always deployed within this apparent contradiction: how might they maintain a critical distance from it, or we from them?

Montag, 19. Juni 2000, 19⁰⁰ Uhr, Mehrzwecksaal, Neubau II